Description of Incident Finding Entered By Entered Date

It is reported that the officers responded to a domestic battery/violation of an order of protection. The subject ran from the officers when they arrived. When they found him at a second location and tried to place him in custody, the subject stiffened and flailed his arms. The subject ignored the officers' orders to comply with them. Officer Ho deployed his Taser at the subject, which was ineffective. The subject ran from the officers again. They were able to stop him and place him into custody with no further incident.
